Greenfield Community College

Volume 1 Number 1

December 1979

Toby B. Sutton

Toby B. Sutton has been named Dean of Academic Affairs at Greenfield Community College. He has been with G.C.C. since September 1970 when he was appointed Assistant Professor in the Natural Sciences Division.

Graduating from the University of California, Berkeley in 1961, Sutton entered teaching in the California Secondary Schools. In 1965 he received a National Science Foundation grant for study at Cornell University, where he earned his M. S. T. in Biology. He pioneered the teaching of oceanography in the California school system and authored the district curriculum in the subject under a Title III grant. He also authored the curriculum for the Sierra Ecology Course.

Since his appointment to the Greenfield faculty, he has taught numerous subjects in the Natural Sciences Division and has been the Coordinator of the Biology Program. In 1974 he was appointed Assistant to the Dean of Faculty and in 1978 as Associate Dean of Faculty. From September 1978 to the present time, he has been Acting Dean of Faculty.

In announcing the appointment, President Nancy Goodwin reported that in "a long search in which many candidates from across the nation were considered by the Special Search Committee, no better qualified person could be found than Toby Sutton. I am delighted that the members of the faculty, staff and the Advisory Board who made up the Search Committee recognized the outstanding leadership that Sutton has shown during the past year. He has demonstrated his capability a thousand times, and he has the strong support of the faculty and staff who know him as a humble and courageous person".

Sutton makes his home in South Deerfield. His wife Janet teaches in the Greenfield Public Schools. They have four sons; Mark, Brent, Craig, and Eric.
